LORD ZENI TOW ROPED HIS FIELD

Pittsburg Phil Bent on This Horse and Followed It Up by Backing Royal Rose, Another Winner at Saratoga.

By Francis Truvelan.

Saratoga, Aug. 2.—What clear dates can do for any track was shown here to-day.
The incoming delegation from New York was numerous, and included many prominent men, though others, like David Glendon, who in previous years have been conspicuous members of the midsummer colony, are still absent. Mr. August Belmont is not here till the 13th. He will leave New York about the 11th, and after taking a short trip around Niagara will come back in this direction.

It is a pity that he will not see the meeting this week, as it would reveal to him, as it has to many others, the possibilities under the new regime of turf affairs even for an association that has seemed as dead of late years as the one that has its headquarters here. It only the association would rise to the occasion and offer such valuable stakes as were formerly associated with its name, some of them of the proportion stake order—it could come near to commanding success, as then the doctory club would be apt to grant it from two to three weeks of clear dates.

Among the new arrivals who are known in the turf world are Elliott H. Cowdin, W.
H. Wallace, W. H. "Hoppe" Landman, Frank Regan, Captain R. H. Hall, H. H.
Hann (who has his old warrior Perrier with him), Ed. Aiken, N. J. 33, Katie and Dr. Porter Ashe, Thomas Hitchcock, Harry W. Smith, "Doc" Smith and others interested in the jumping race, are staying over, although the jumpers will not have another chance till next Saturday.

Had News About Ben Brush.
There was some rather bad news about Mr. M. B. Dwyer's colt, little Ben Brush, to-day. He was going sound enough this morning, but it now seems certain that he has developed another splint on the off leg, the other leg then that which was affected by the splint, and it is now the hope to arrest the growth of the splint, but this is at a rather risky matter, so that at present there is some doubt about the colt of Ben Brush will be an active participant in the big races of the Fall.

Mr. Dwyer, by the way, doubts that he but on his horse in the afternoon, but deeps, as he did not think he had done enough work for such a race owing to the hot weather. He is from the fact that that Mr. Dwyer did not want to risk the same road to a very large extent of late, and the latter let $2,500. Even the bookmakers took it to be Mr. Dwyer's money.
Moreover, Harry Campbell, thought that Ben Brush would win, and he was not quarrel with an unusually large bet of his own money.

There was no stake feature on to-day's card, but the weather was so hot and lovely as it seems able to be only in Saratoga, and the horses as well as the speculators, seem to feel the influence of the surroundings. The track had dried out last, though not enough to be really fast.
Even a race for three-year-olds that had not been run since the 27th of July, and on the face of it would not have produced much of a contest, brought about a remarkably good race. Everything in short, would have been long and dry, and an excessively hot ride that O'Donnell exhibited on Shasta Water in the mile and a furlong steeplechase.

O'Donnell's Very Bad Ride.
The Burns & Waterhouse filly was a hot favorite, even money and less being the average price about her. Kingston and Joe Miller had good backing, but Carl was a much better bet, and he was the favorite small field of four. There was no inclination on the part of any jockey to make the pace, and Lewis took Joe Miller, whose time was 1:10. O'Donnell, on Shasta Water, took hold of Shasta Water and had the filly back jumping behind her field. At the five furlong mark, where he might have moved up, he took the filly back and ran her several lengths further out of the race.

On the turn Carl and Kingston closed on Joe Miller and cut him out. O'Donnell piled, and O'Donnell, once having made up his mind that he had waited long enough on Shasta Water, at once went to the whip. The favorite cut out of the race quickly, but it was no good, and Harry Lewis landed Joe Miller a winner in a drive of 1:10. Carl, who had been a head for a head for the place.

The stewards did not call up O'Donnell, but Joe Miller was ridden by Jimmy McCormick.
He told the stewards that he was far from satisfied with the boy's work, he thought the boy had tried to ride to the winners, and he was not a great stayer. McCormick was instructed not to put O'Donnell up again on his horses, so that as the boy is entirely new to the turf, he will finally get down for the rest of the meeting.

Maria Dressler Protests.
The race created an enormous amount of talk. Tom Woodford was anxious to buy Shasta Water and run her against Joe Miller, but the same was refused for $25,000 a side in two days. The Pittsburgh Phil, who backed Kingston straight and place, and had no interest, said it was the actual race he had seen in his fifteen years' experience.

Maria Dressler, who has left her cottage and family at Long Branch to come up here and stay in the hotel, said that she was this week, was so indignant that she wrote the following, which she handed to me for the benefit of the stewards:

What a disgrace it was to see Shasta Water's race! First put up I ever had the pleasure of seeing.

The Huguenot, the brother to Henry of Navarre, got out of the maiden class in the opening race. It was a big field, ten accepting the issue. What looked like a good start was refused, as Fitzpatrick saw two horses, went butting and then the race got away, and when he went then the three were badly treated, notably Trilby.
At a half mile, he made the running for a while, but he was not able to hold it, and was easily left the rest of the distance.
The Western horse, Lord Zeni, an even favorite, with a big field, was easily roped his field in the six furlong race, but there took no chances, and won out by two lengths. Pittsburg Phil bent on the winner, and followed it up by backing Royal Rose.

Mr. Keene's filly, favorite at 6 to 5, made all over to the "fill from the outside position at the start. Challenger, who was a bit second favorite, looked dangerous on the back of the backstretch, but then began to sink, and was up better than several, Royal Rose winning under the whip.

Saved Jack Bennett's Money.
Lucky for Jack Bennett, Blue Beard, an odd-on favorite in the last race, was quick on his feet, as he was running, but he was not able to hold it, and was easily left. Blue Beard made the pace, but a rather, who was well backed, gave him a bad argument, and was only beaten a neck.

Peter Worth, the president of the Manhattan Turf Alliance, to-day "worked in" the $1,100 prize he offered to various backers, which was a very good thing with. Thus the dignity of the body, which

Mr. Reilly has under his wing has been upheld.

Mr. Harry W. Smith worked his horse St. Francis over the afternoon course after the races. He did not attempt much pace, but St. Francis' fencing was of the glit-edged variety.

MYOPIAS WIN AT POLO.

Slow Play in the Game Between the Boston and Buffalo Teams at Narragansett Pier.

Narragansett Pier, R. I., Aug. 2.—Under most favorable auspices, barring a short summer shower, the Point Judith Country Club's polo tournament opened here to-day.
The rival teams were the Buffalos, of New York State, and the Myopias II., of Boston.

The play was slow on both sides, but in the first and second periods some brilliant individual work was done by the Myopia team, notably by Harry Holmes, who made some magnificent drives across field, and at official times got in some very clever back strokes.

The Buffalos lacked good team work, but in the final period they woke up and Dr.
Cary distinguished himself by some clever drives. The teams lined up as follows:

FOREIGN TENNIS MEN PLAY TO-DAY.

Everything Ready for the "Round Robin" International Tourney.

STEVENS TO ENTERTAIN.

The Millionaire Tennis Expert Will Have the Visitors for His Guests.

The first matches in the big international "round robin" tournament of the St. George Cricketer Club will be played this afternoon at Hoboken. The drawings for all four days of the meeting were made on Saturday and the arrangements for the accommodation of the big crowd expected were finished yesterday. The visiting experts, Mahony, Eaves and Nisbet, arrived in town yesterday from Boston, and all three went over to Hoboken in the afternoon to see the grounds. Throughout the week they will be the guests of Richard Stevens, at Castle Point, Hoboken, and the millionaire tennis player can be relied upon to show them every attention the distinguished visitors deserve.

Stevens and ex-Champion O. S. Campbell compose the committee of the club which is conducting the tournament, and they have both worked hard to make it a success.
There will be ample space around each of the three courts for the crowd. An excellent refreshment stand will be set up at the back of each court, and the manager of green baize at the back of each court, to prevent the light skirts of the women from breaking the background against which the players will have to follow the ball. This plan proved very successful at Newport during the championships two years ago.
The full schedule for the four days is as follows:

To-day—Larned vs. Nisbet, G. Wrenn vs. Mahony, and Wrenn vs. Eaves.
Wednesday—G. Wrenn vs. Eaves, R. Wrenn vs. Nisbet, and Larned vs. Mahony.
Thursday—Exhibition doubles—L.
Wrenn and O. S. Campbell vs. Mahony and Eaves.
Friday—G. Wrenn vs. Nisbet, Larned vs. Eaves and R. Wrenn vs. Mahony.

Every match will be best three in five sets and matches will take place at the same time on different courts. Play will begin at 2:30 and 4 o'clock each day, except the double match, which will be started at 3:45 p. m.

Eastern League.

At Montreal—Montreal, 4; Providence 1 (first game). Montreal, 2; Providence, 6 (second game).
At Toronto—Toronto, 9; Scranton, 1 (first game). Toronto, 11; Scranton, 5 (second game).

Atlantic League.

At Newark—Newark, 6; Lancaster, 3.
At Norfolk—Norfolk, 6; Reading, 2.
At Richmond—Richmond, 5; Athletics, 3.

To-day's League Games.

St. Louis at Chicago.
Pittsburg at Cincinnati.
Cleveland at Louisville.
Boston at Washington.

World's Cycling Championships.
Glasgow, Aug. 2.—In the 100 kilometer bicycle race for the amateur championship of the world, to-day, Goudt, of England, was first; Ouseon, of France, was second, and Moerby, of Denmark, was third. Time, 2 hours, 10 minutes, 6 2-5 seconds. In the one mile race between Arend, of Germany, the world's professional champion, and Schroeder, of Denmark, the world's amateur champion, the former won.
Time, 2 minutes 51 seconds.

UNCLE CHARLIE HAD TO EXPLAIN.

Marvin, the Veteran Driver, Called Before the Judges at Columbus.

UPSET IN PACING CLASS.

Monroe Salisbury and John Kelly, His Driver, Dissolve Partnership.

By C. A. McCully.
Columbus, Ohio, Aug. 2.—Just a twelvemonth ago the Buckeye capital was added to that select coterie of cities visited by the crack harness racers of the Grand Circuit.
John Kelly, who has been driving Katy and the other flyers in the stable managed by Monroe Salisbury, has dissolved partnership with his old employer. When asked to whom he would engage next, the doughty old Californian replied: "Oh, I can get any number of teamsters, but the hard thing to find is some good horses."

While Dave Devill had matters his own way in the first race, some of the critics thought St. Andre could have made it more interesting for him. As the latter is owned by Joseph C. Shuler, the multi-millionaire and politician, of Franklin, Pa., and is handled by that pattern of all the virtues possible in a driver, Charles Marvin, the veteran flyer's method of taking it easy with St. Andre to the last quarter, and then stepping up to win, looked odd, and the judges finally called Uncle Charlie to the stand. He explained that his young trotter had a hard race at Sturdick's, and that he could not beat Dave Devill a foot of the way, thought it better not to punish St. Andre. This was satisfactory to everybody, but the short-end players, who had bought the field at $12 and $18 to $50 for the Hamlin entry.

Mabel P. was mistress of the 2:17 pace for the first section, and did not have to improve her work of 2:11 in doing up second rates that followed in her wake.

It was the 2:11 paces that gave all the trouble, and every body expected that daylight without settling their dispute.
Billy C's temporary success in the first two races was especially popular as he is owned here, but he and Nether B. the original came together in the third heat and both sulkies were smashed. As neither driver seemed to be in fault, the runaways were placed.
